Character Counts #1 (CC1)

Third Party Email*

Some scholarships require Character Counts recommendations. Recommenders score the applicants on six pillars of character: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and citizenship. Recommenders may also provide a comment if so desired. Scholarships may require anywhere from 1 to 3 Character Counts. If scholarship that you are eligible for requires a Character Counts recommendation the fields will appear below.

Type your recommender email in field below and hit compose email. Use this email EXAMPLE to copy and paste to your recommender:
Dear Recommender,

Frequently Asked Questions:

Can I submit before my third parties have responded?

Yes. We encourage you to complete your application(s) as soon as possible. But remember you are ultimately responsible for making sure your third party has responded. You can log into your dashboard at any time to check on the status. Your third party will receive an automatic email reminder after seven days if they have not responded to your request.

Do I have to apply for all the scholarships that I qualify for?

No. You can hit Abandon Request on an opportunity you don't want to apply for. Situations do arise that this could happen.

Do I have to have all different recommenders? No. If you qualify for several scholarships and two scholarships require three Character Counts recommendations, they can and will be the same. Once a recommender completes the online Character Counts recommendation it will update all applications that require the Character Counts.

What happens if I change my college or major? Some scholarships are college specific and/or major specific. An example: The Macfarlane Family Scholarship requires that you must be attending Iowa State to receive this scholarship. If you are awarded this scholarship and you do not attend Iowa State it will be rescinded and awarded to an alternate that is attending Iowa State. The Siouxland Community Foundation administers many scholarships that do not have a specific college or major requirement.

If you have questions please reach out to the Siouxland Community Foundation with any questions. We are here to help.
